

TIM WOODBURN

541 Kingston Dr., St. Louis, MO 63125
Cell: (314) 766-0351 E-mail: tim@gatewaypi.net

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

GATEWAY INVESTIGATIONS

Owner/ Licensed Private Investigator (March 2008 - Current)

- * Owner and supervisor of a company of 10 field investigators, as retained by contract as an Insurance Fraud - Workman's Comp. private investigator firm by multiple insurance companies in addition to conducting private investigations for law firms and private citizens. (<https://www.gatewaypi.net/>) Note: A+ rating with BBB for 10 years.
- * Performed hundreds of background checks and locates of persons, businesses, existing sports franchises and owners and/or potential expansion sports franchise markets and potential owners.
- * Conducted recorded statements with dozens of owners, employees, politicians, media representatives and other associated professionals.

CUMULUS

CUMULUS BROADCASTING of LEXINGTON

Sports Director, Talk Show Host & Investigative Reporter
(Feb 2000 - March 2007)

- * Supervised and managed this cluster of 5 radio stations sports projects, including: University of Kentucky football and basketball pre-game and post-game programming; hosting a 6pm-8pm nightly call-in show; performed as on-air talent during morning drive (6a-9a) sports-casts and play-by-play of Kentucky Thoroughblades Hockey (AHL) programming, etc...
- * Served as a Talk Show Host (WVLK-AM 590) of a nightly call-in program that led most demographics in the 6P-8P time slot among three competing sports call-in shows in the market.
- * Primary anchor and investigative reporter of all sports projects, including University of Kentucky football & basketball pre-game and post-game programming.

SNITCH MAGAZINE

Owner/ Publisher / Investigative Reporter (2002 - 2006)

- * Supervised all editorial content and revenue streams of the largest weekly publication in the state of Kentucky.
- * Hired and managed a sales team and overall staff of over 50 full and part time employees, with an annual operating budget of over $2 million.

KENTUCKY THOROUGHBLADES HOCKEY (AHL)

Vice-President of Communications (1996 - 2001)

- * Supervisor of all annual advertising & print expenditures in addition to producing all creative content of television, radio, billboard, print and special project campaigns.
- * Provided a generous share of corporate advertising/ ticket sales.
- * Radio and television play-by-play broadcaster for every game of this AHL expansion franchise for its entire 5-year existence.
- * Executive producer / anchor of a Sunday evening (6:30-7:00 p.m.) weekly television program, "Thoroughblades Pipeline" (WKYT-TV)
- * Negotiated and constructed the AHL's largest radio network, consisting of 10 stations with a radius of approximately 280 miles, in addition to supervising the coordination of internet simulcasts.

ROANOKE EXPRESS HOCKEY CLUB (ECHL)

Director of Marketing / Broadcasting (1993 - 1996)

- * Supervised the advertising and ticket sales efforts for this expansion ECHL organization during the first three years of franchise history, resulting in a 319% increase in attendance from the franchise that operated in the market the year before.
- * Served as radio and television play-by-play broadcaster
- * Recruited and negotiated contracts in forming the ECHL's largest radio network, hosted by the number one A.M. radio station in all of Western Virginia, WFIR-AM 960. Network consisted of five stations covering a radius of approximately 160 miles.
- * Executive editor, including all layout & design, of organizational print publications.
- * Supervised organizational advertising and marketing campaigns which assisted in earning my employers "ECHL Executives of the Year" after the franchise's inaugural season.

BIRMINGHAM BULLS HOCKEY CLUB (ECHL)

Director of Communications / Broadcasting (1992 - 1993)

ST. LOUIS BLUES HOCKEY CLUB (NHL)

Public Relations / Broadcast Intern (1991 - 1992)

KOMU-TV (NBC) Columbia, MO

Sports Anchor / Reporter (1990 - 1991)

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts - Broadcast Journalism
University of Missouri - Columbia (May - 1991)

St. Mary's High School St. Louis, Missouri (1987)

ACCOMPLISHMENTS & ACHIEVEMENTS

* Selected by the American Hockey League to broadcast the 1999 AHL All-Star Game and 1999 AHL All-Star Skills Competition. Coordinated the 11-station, league-wide satellite radio network and internet simulcast, originating from the First Union Center in Philadelphia, for both events.

* Presented with the 1999 AHL James H. Ellery Award (radio category) by the AHL Board of Governors, for outstanding work in promoting the American Hockey League.

* Former News Anchor/ Co-Host of "The Large Morning Show in the Afternoon" with Frank O. Pinion KFNS-AM 590 (St. Louis, MO) (October 2017 – November 2020)

REFERENCES

Steve Chapman

V.P. – St. Louis Blues
Cell: (678) 294-8694

Chris Kerber – V.P. / PBP Announcer

(St.Louis Blues)
Cell:(314)313-0213

Ron DeGregorio

President - USA Hockey
Cell: (603) 560-0436

Dave Krusenklau

Talk Show Host - Cumulus Broadcasting
Cell: (859) 533-2490

Kenny "Sky" Walker

Retired former NBA Star
Cell: (859) 227-1362

John Craddock ("Frank O. Pinion")

Talk Show Host - KFNS AM 590
Cell: (314) 574-9178